A Psalm of Life

Tell me not, in mournful numbers, Life is but an empty dream!— For the soul is dead that slumbers, And things are not what they seem.

Life is real! Life is earnest!

And the grave is not its goal;

Dust thou art, to dust returnest,

Was not spoken of the soul.

Not enjoyment, and not sorrow, Is our destined end or way; But to act, that each tomorrow Find us farther than today.

Art is long, and Time is fleeting,
And our hearts, though stout and brave,
Still, like muffled drums, are beating
Funeral marches to the grave.

In the world's broad field of battle, In the bivouac of Life, Be not like dumb, driven cattle! Be a hero in the strife!

Trust no Future, howe'er pleasant!

Let the dead Past bury its dead!

Act, — act in the living Present!

Heart within, and God o'erhead!

Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time;

Footprints, that perhaps another, Sailing o'er life's solemn main, A forlorn and shipwrecked brother, Seeing, shall take heart again.

Let us, then, be up and doing, With a heart for any fate; Still achieving, still pursuing, Learn to labor and to wait.

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

SLICE of LIFE'

Student Government Association

President and Secretary YuLanda Robinson

James Metcalf President SGA

Coahoma Junior is truly as President James E. Miller says often, "A place where the men are neater and the girls are sweeter than any where else on earth."

In the two years I have attended Coahoma I have come to love it and it has also become a vital and intricate part of my life.

Coahoma has played a great role in preparing me for college life at a higher institution and I am optimistic in believing that with the new administration a significantly greater role for students who will enter in years to come will be played.

Although this role at Coahoma is practically over, I am glad of the fact that it has prepared me for greater roles, roles which will enable me to succeed in my future endeavors.

Coahoma, I thank you for this "Slice of Life."

Editor's Message

We've come to the end of another year. It seems as though it really went by fast. The yearbook staff and I have tried our best to capture some of the most exciting events at Coahoma Junior College. Our theme "A Slice of Life" has a very appropriate meaning for this year's annual. We have chosen to show life as it is at CJC.

We are thankful for the support of you, the students and the faculty. We are grateful for our sponsor Mrs. Josephine P. Rhymes, our photographers Mr. Timothy Burrell and Mr. John Mayo and Mr. Thomas Richardson our artist. Without them this production would not have been possible.

We hope that this 1979-80 annual will be something that you will cherish and be proud of for the rest of your lives.

I will leave this thought with you. Wherever you go, whatever you do, always remember the loving CJC family
